

Jerry Mathis

Program Specialist

Jerry is a Program Specialist at the Renaissance Entrepreneurship Center for the Peninsula, a non-profit organization dedicated to fostering economic growth by providing business training and support services to a diverse range of entrepreneurs. In his role, Jerry designs and coordinates program offerings that address the unique needs of Renaissance's business clients, ensuring they receive tailored guidance to thrive. With a background in business and experience as an entrepreneur himself, Jerry brings empathy and firsthand insight to his work, empowering others to start, grow, and succeed in their ventures.