SBIC Introduction

About

The Small Business Input Committee (SBIC) is comprised of Minority Business Enterprises (MBEs) owners, from Northern California, Nevada, Hawaii, and Guam, certified by the Western Regional Minority Supplier Development Council.

Our mission is to foster a vibrant marketplace of diversity and opportunity by building relationships between Corporate America and certified MBEs. We also aim to strengthen connections within the MBE community to increase intra-community commerce and support.

SBIC is an important part of the Western Regional Minority Supplier Development Council (WRMSDC). It consists of a Chair, Officers, and Regional Leads. Our focus is to support the WRMSDC network and promote the growth and recognition of MBEs. We achieve this by advocating for initiatives and programs within the network and collaborating with governmental agencies.

Leadership

The Small Business Input Committee (SBIC) is dedicated to advancing the interests of minority-owned businesses and promoting their economic prosperity. Through strategic initiatives, advocacy efforts, and collaborative partnerships, the SBIC board strives to create a level playing field where minority entrepreneurs can thrive.

Here, you will find a comprehensive roster of the esteemed individuals who form the backbone of the SBIC board. Each member brings a wealth of experience, expertise, and passion to the table, driving forward our mission to empower minority-owned enterprises and drive positive change in the marketplace.

Explore our leadership team below and discover the diverse talents and perspectives that collectively shape the direction and impact of the SBIC within the WRMSDC community. Together, we are committed to building a more inclusive and equitable business environment for all.

SBIC Ambassadors

WRMSDC's MBE Input Committee (SBIC) Ambassadors perform various tasks in support of the Council and the SBIC. These can include representing the Council and the SBIC at affiliate events, welcoming guests to Council events and introducing them to key community leaders in attendance to help break the ice, volunteering at Council events, and more.

1. Assist Board Members with SBIC Events
2. Serve as Mentors to new MBEs
3. Represent WRMSDC at Various Events, i.e., Chambers of Commerce and other organizations in this space, and report findings.
4. Greet Attendees at WRMSDC Events, i.e., Gala, Expo, etc.
5. Assist WRMSDC Staff with Ad Hoc Requestst.

Facilities Management Industry Day Recap

We are excited to share the highlights from our first SBIC Facilities Management Industry Day, held on April 25th at the JPMC office on Mission Street in San Francisco. This event was a tremendous success, providing a unique platform for Minority Business Enterprises (MBEs) to network, learn, and explore new business opportunities.

The event kicked off with an engaging welcome address, setting the tone for an afternoon of insightful presentations and fruitful networking. Attendees were treated to a series of compelling presentations from a stellar lineup of speakers representing some of the top corporations in the industry.

Our distinguished speakers included:

- Jason Grant, Global Supply & Sourcing Manager, Apple
- Judy Seto, Global Sourcing & Supply Manager, Apple
- Scott Vowels, Lead of the Supplier Diversity Program, Apple
- Ron Holmes, Sr. Manager, Apple's Supplier Diversity Team
- Laura Higgins, Head of Diverse Businesses, JPMC
- David Kreichelt, Sourcing Director, Applied Materials
- Priyanka Mouli Shankar, Category Business Manager, Applied Materials
- Teresa Cox, Senior Strategic Sourcing, County of Santa Clara

Each speaker shared invaluable insights into the current opportunities within the facilities management sector and emphasized the importance of supplier diversity. The presentations highlighted various avenues for MBEs to engage with these leading corporations and discussed the evolving landscape of the industry.

The event provided an excellent opportunity for MBEs to connect directly with corporate representatives, fostering meaningful dialogues that are expected to lead to promising business collaborations. The networking sessions were vibrant and dynamic, with numerous MBEs exchanging ideas and exploring potential partnerships.

We extend our heartfelt thanks to all the speakers and attendees for making this inaugural Facilities Management Industry Day a resounding success. Your participation and support are crucial in driving forward the mission of SBIC and enhancing opportunities for minority businesses.

For those who could not attend or wish to revisit the event, photos capturing the day's highlights can be found in the photo section of this newsletter. We look forward to your continued support and participation in future SBIC events. Connect with us by joining our mailing list for information about the next SBIC Industry Day.
